FACTS AND FANCIES FOR WOMAN AND THE HOME CIRCLE

the tone of his voice. We must all be practical, I thought.

Y'You know all about rations." said. "Divide this stuff into even parts for each day of the old year. Then divide it again into three 'balanced' meals a day for each of

THE DAILY SHORT STORY

Uncle Honey Bunch. By BARBARA KERR.

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClere Newspaper Syndicate.)

THOMAS ALLERTON's auto-Mobile, containing, besides him-self, his sister, Charlotta Aller-ton; his daughter, Wilifred, and his son, Tom, Jr., was, in the vernacular of west Texas, "bogged down" hopein a lane running past a queer little stone house.

Wilifred must of necessity see wha sort of person lived there, so she set off down the lane into the yard. A most curious sight met her. A swarm of bees seemed to be trying to get in the window, and bees were ronming wild all ever the premises. She gave a scream of dismay, which brought a amazed at the bees, but more amazed at the man. He was honey from top to toe and bees were swarming all over him.

He paid no attention to the been except to catch them by the wings, if they chanced to light on his bare hands, and holding them aloft gently would let them loose to fly away. His big fat collie apparently had taken refuge from the bees behind a screen set up before an overturned box, and did not come out even to speak to the what nervous. I've been robbing them today," said the bee-man, nonchal-antly. Then "Is there anything I can do for you?"

just look at them! I should say they are nervous! Why, they are trying to get inside your house. Look at that window ledge! A whole swarm of them trying to get inside. They'll never get take your house and you'll never get inside of it again!" cried Willifred,

"Yes, but they did that a long time ago. They seemed to want to live there even more than I did, so I just let them take one side," said the be-

"But don't they sting you?" insist-

No, we get along most amicably. I fixed up a glass compartment for them, and we live in peace and har-"Oh!" gasped Wilifred. "Then, of

"Oh!" gasped Wilifred. "Then, of course, there isn't anybody here but you—no woman." and he looked "Hitch the nags to the fence and let's wistfully across the desert plain as down and meet your family."

"All of this time worth while. So Aunt Carrier this time worth while while the carrier this time worth while while the carrier this time worth while while the carrier this time worth while whi

"No, no woman," and he looked wistfully across the desert plain as though hoping she were coming.

"Of course," Wilfired hastened to say, "a woman would be afraid of the bees, and your daughter rather objected to the latter. I'm running a primeval bachelor's paradise," with just a suspicion of bitterness. "But really, "pardon me. I didn't mean to—to—pry."

"You didn't. You simply caught me rather unawares. I think I told you because I wanted to. Old bachelors get so lonesome that they are garrulous on slepth provacations now and then. And if you will not mind my saying it, it was because I fancied a resemblance in you to that woman who feared to trust me and the deserthere with her future. As I said before, perhaps she was right. At any rate I blame her less and less as the years roll by. But," changing again to his matter-of-fact manner, "you have not told me whether there is anything I could do for you."

"Oh, do come with us, Mr. O'Bar-ron," she pleaded; "the bees can get the bees, and your daughter rather along a while without you and the hees, and the latter. I'm running a primeval bachelor's paradise," with a ter blushing aunt. "You see, we tail washed out, and the water is coming down that deep arroye like old Mad river back in Ohio. You'll have to go back to Amarillo and wait until the bridges are fixed. I'd ask you to share my shack if the sees would allow me, but if you'll wait a little I'll ride along and help you back over those bad chuckholes."

"Why, I—I'm not awfully earial of bees, Mr. O'Barron?"

"Thu's for here's no use in your of will have to stay in town a few days. The really friend for company."

Of course, he needed no further using indeed and nodded. She was too wise to trust ther voice, so the beam murried off to change into another by wait a little I'll ride along and help you back to vert hose bad chuckholes."

"Why, I—I'm not awfully earial of bees, Mr. O'Barron?"

"Thu's fortunate, Mrs.—Mrs.—"

"That's fortunate, Mrs.—Mrs.—"

"That's fortunate, Mrs.—Mrs.—" nuckhole and the men are digging the machine out, so I came exploring.

"And Aunt Carlotta stored

And I am so much more interested in the bees and the honey than digging out autos, which has become a rather omount thing."

"Have you ever tasted any of the valley honey? I was going to say catclaw honey, but as you are a tenderfoot you'd hardly know the term. Let me go inside and get some for returning, he handed her upon a wooden plate a most delicious cake couches, several hours later.

"Yesterday was Christmas. If anything should happen to our watches, in little orange colored rivulets into we'd soon lose track of the days and nights. So we'd better mark off each sponsible for the death of her daughter and Chrys for—

I stopped. No use to speak of Certain to me, nor of Don Manded to our lunch, for we have not eat-en it yet." She turned to go. n it yet." She turned to go.

"Perhaps I'd better get the horses visions," put in the doctor. "Since-it's breakfast time."

"And no coffee!" groaned Archer.

"Perhaps I'd better get the horses ready; for we sometimes have to pull people out of these holes," sugges ad the bee man.
"Well, what have you there, Mrs. Christopher Columbus?" asked her aunt as Wilifred approached her aunt's perch at the side of the road bubbling over with delight at her acquisition.

Spence arose and went over the basket of provisions which Dame Camilla simply loathes all that men were in the habit of falling in love with Chrys and me!

"Donna Camilla simply loathes all "Mericans—and especially American women," I concluded abruptly.

"It's a week's supply for two women," it is going to be a disappointed old party this time. You'll neither be mad nor dead when she returns," remarked the doctor confidently. I liked the doctor confidently. I liked the control of the four duplicate tables.

Sitting down beside her Wilifred proceeded to tell her all about it. "Sweetest man on God's green earth, auntie. He was honey from the crown of his hat to the soles of his shoes. Fact! You'd be crazy about him. I guess the girl that he was going to marry stung him so hard that he took up bees as a counter irritant. What's the matter, aunties?" For her aunt gasped, turned white, sprang to her feet, looking from left to right in dismay, as though she must flee—but where to? For the bee man was coming a few roads away leading his horses. He stopped for a fleeting moment as if he, too, had seen a ghost, then taking of his hat he said:

"Ah, so that explains the resemblance! Your daughter, I suppose, Mrs.—Mrs.—"

"No," faltered Aunt Charlotta: "It's my niece, Tom's daughter. That's Tom over there." over there."

But Mr. Allerton had recognized him: "Why, hello O. B. Where in thunder did you come from? Live around here?" And he hastened out of the mud to greet his old-time friend, ad almost once-upon-a-time brother-in-law. "This is youngTom, Ned; you ought to resemble him. Tom, his is Ned O'Barron; used to live in your town."

The bee man, without further cere-

ADVENTURES THE TWINS by Olive Roberts Barton

Mr. Rooster Loses a Meal

When the twins left the ant hole they were little, like ants, you know, When the twins left the ant hole they were little, like ants, you know, instead of getting away from Mr. Rooster, they had run right into a men," said the doctor. "We can live on water for quite a while, you know."

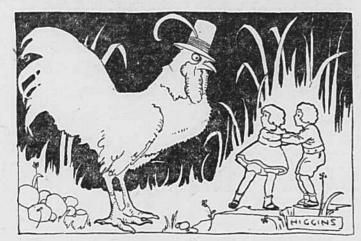

Now that we are paying a premium for "strictly fresh" eggs, a word about as men," said the doctor. "We can live on water for quite a while, you know." and instead of getting away from Mr. Rooster, they had run right into ready for two nice bites.

"Quick," said Nick. "Let's wish ou selves big again or he'll eat us."

So both children said. "Please, green shoes, makes us big again.." But they didn't get big at all. And when they looked to see what was wrong with this the magic shoes were gone.

"Run and hide in the grass!" commanded the mushroom from Nancy's

"Rk! Rk! Rk!" he scolded, as he hunted and hunted. But he soon got tired and went back to scratch around the ant hole.

Nancy and Nick were quiet and still 'til Mr. Rooster got away. They Nancy and Nick were quiet and still the art. Rooster get away. The didn't move for a long time.

"My!" said Nancy... "I was scared..."

"So was I," admitted Nick... "But we'd better be going.. We've got to funt for Jocko, our lost monkey, you know..."

"West but that wa've got to find our lost green shoes! We can't go

'Yest, but first we've got to find our lost green shoes! We can't go home 'til we find them... Mamma wouldn't know us.."

They were so small, the grass around them looked like great trees over their heads and they hardly knew which way to go..

"Let's go this way," said Nick finally, taking Nancy's hand and pointing to a tiny path.

But what do you think? When they tried to walk they couldn't move a step .. They were caught in a spider's web. (Copyright, 1919, N. E. A.)

CONFESSIONS OF A BRIDE

(Copyright, 1920, by the N. E. A.)

"We've got to keep a calendar of "Expecting to find us crazed with

We Rally Our Strength to Stand Siege Against Madness.

mony, began backing his horses under his breath, it went no further around to hitch to the stalled auto.

Spence arose and around to hitch to the stalled auto.

All effort was directed to getting the machine once more on solid earth; then Mr. O'Barron turned the horses' heads toward home.

"Held on Nad" hearts!

"Held on Nad" h

I stopped. No use to speak of Cer-ters' devotion to me, nor of Don Man-uel's love for Chrys. It would sound went over the which Dame Cathat men were in the habit of falling in love with Chrys and me!

Chrys was standing between the two men. Being unable to speak, she put a hand on a wrist of each—and simply smiled. I think her touch, not my plea, won the decision I wanted. Jordan Spence spoke immediately: "As you will, Mrs. Lorimer." And he proceeded to make a fair division of the food—with Chrys to oversee the

I thought, as I watched them, that at last I had found a man who was really worthy to woo and win Chrys-tobel Lorimer. Dr. Spence would un-derstand her, and humor her as much but no more than was good for her.

the time of the wedding she had thought herself in love with Certeis. That was why he had been able to coerce her into the ceremony. How-ever, she had at the time approved of his "liberal" political ideas. She had, more that once, defended his senti-mental fantastical ultra-modern radicalism. She had liked to think herself one of the mentally elect, one of a group which would reform this old earth!

"Chrys has been asleep in more ways than one," said myself to my-self. "Maybe this splendid Prince Charming is the real man who will wake her—and restore her normal sense as well as her speech!" I resolved to tell Jordan Spence all about her as soon as I could shape an opportunity to do so

(To Be Continued.)

} Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared. ៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰៰

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs. Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use chrified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

positive, effective remeaver.

fectly, and tastes pleasant—children flike it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hearseness, and bronchial asthma.

calat astama.

Pirex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Piner" with druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satis-faction or money refunded. The Pinex Co. Ft. Wayne, Ind.

KLIM

The Powdered Fresh Milk Write for Booklet. M. SCHULZ

Distributor for West Virginia Clarksburg, W. Va

HAMBURGER AND LUNCHES

"Best in Fairmont" Served With Music.

Hauck's on Draught Drop in Day or Night

BERGO NO. 1 304 Water St.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

(Copyright, 1920, by the N. E. A.)

Now that we are paying a premium scallone 26-bbage, pear salad, carafor "strictly fresh" eggs, a word about the difference between these jewels and the common storage egg may not Apricots are a change for a break-

"And let your strength run down,"
I commented indignantly. "Then you'll be of no use whatever to us women—in case we may need you awfully—maybe to fight for us—before we get out of here!" I said, and my sincerity brought the tears to my eyes.

Chrys was standing between the least of the lea matter how hard you beat the ordin-ary storage egg the white will not get dry and light but remains thin and wet.

A fresh egg can be poached and a storage can not. But an egg that has been in storage only three to six months, if it has been properly taken care of, should be usable. It should beat well and have a sweet, untainted taste.

Menu for Tomorrow.

BREAKFAST — Stewed apricots, scrembled eggs, toast, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Fried oysters, cucumber pickles, bread and butter, butbut no more than was good for her.

And i remembered with a great gladuness that although she had never been Hamilton Certeis, she had never been big bride.

DINNER—Cream of celery soup, veal cutlets, French fried potatoes,

2 cups seedless raising 1-3 cup lard 1-4 grated nutmeg 1 teaspoon cinnamon

1 egg Dried bread crumbs

Salt and pepper Wash oysters. Drain and dry between towels. Sasson with salt and pepper and lemon tuice. Roll in bread crumbs, dip in slightly besten egg and roll again in crumbs. Try either in deep fat or in a frying pan.

BUTTERLESS-EGGLESS-MILK-

cup brown sugar cup water

1 teaspoon cloves 1-2 teaspoon salt

1 scant teaspoon soda

LESS CAKE

we need Used Furniture to supply our Old Store, corner Jack son and Jefferson streats. You need New Furniture from our New Store, 221 Monroe street. Let us exchange. We also repair or store Furniture. You will find a complete line of 1-2 teaspoon baking powder Cook the first eight ingredinets in a saucepan. Let boil three minutes. When cool add goda disolved in bolling water and the flour and baking pow-der. Mix well. Pour in a buttered and floured pan and bake about 40 min-

SCALLOPED CABBAGH

1-2 cup stale bread crumbs
1-2 cup stale bread crumbs
Salt and pepper.
Put cabbage in a baking dish. Pour white sauce. Sprinkle with over white sauce. Sprinkle with cheese. Add sait and pepper and sprinkle with bread crumbs. Bake in a hot oven 15 or 20 minutes.

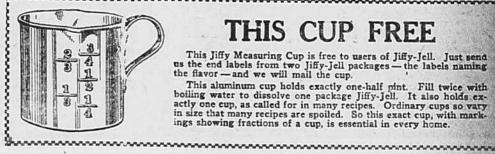

To some folks the Sabbath means a day of rest. To the cook it means a day of roast.

2 cups cooked cabbage 1 cup thin white sauce 2 tablespoons grated chesses furniture carpets, stoves, Paint and Wallapaper at our new store, 221 Monroe street. See Denham First Co.

221 MONROE STREET Next to Woolworth's

THIS CUP FREE

This Jiffy Measuring Cup is free to users of Jiffy-Jell. Just send us the end labels from two Jiffy-Jell packages—the labels naming the flavor—and we will mail the cup.

This aluminum cup holds exactly one-half pint. Fill twice with boiling water to dissolve one package Jiffy-Jell. It also holds exactly one cup, as called for in many recipes. Ordinary cups so vary in size that many recipes are spoiled. So this exact cup, with markings showing fractions of a cup, is essential in every home.

Crushed Fruit Desserts Delightful Dainties at Trifling Cost

Free Dessert Molds

These Individual Desert Molds come in assorted styles, six to the set. The six will serve a full package of Jiffy-Jell. We send the full set for 5 end labels. The molds are aluminum, and the set is worth 60c.

TOM, THERE'S A POOR MAN OUT

We make these offers to show more women what Jiffy-Jell means to them.

Jiffy-Jell differs vastly from other quick gelatine desserts. Each package contains a bottle of condensed fruit juice.

We crush the fruit, condense the juice, and bring you real fruit in abundance in these Jiffy-Jell desserts.

That's the important point. Flavor is mere taste, and often artificial. The fruit itself is rich in earthy salts. Everybody needs it every day.

For a Few Cents

Fresh fruit and canned fruit are expensive. Here are rich fruit dainties which are not. And they are rich in fruit.

Half a pincapple, for instance, is used to flavor one Jiffy-Jell dessert. Then almost a whole lemon is used to acidulate the mixture.

Yet a package of Jiffy-Jell serves six people in mold form,

10 Flavors in Vials Each Package Raspberry serry Strawberry Cherry Loganberry Strawberry Pineapple Orange Lemon and twelve if you whip the jell -all for a few cents.

It is also quick. Simply add boiling water, as directed on package, then the fruit-juice flavor from the vial, and let cool.

Millions are using these quick, economical fruit desserts, and no home now should miss them.

Try These Flavors

Try Loganberry and Pineapple for desserts. Try Limefruit flavor. It makes a tart, green salad jell. Mix in your salad before cooling. Or mix in meat scraps and make an appetizing meat loaf.

Try Mint flavor. It makes a cestful mint jell to serve with meats or as a side dish.

Try them now. Then send us the end labels which mention the flavor, and get the Jiffy Cup and any of our molds.

Other Free Molds

The labels called for are the end labels—the one on each package which mentions the flavor. Send the coupon with the labels called for and check the molds you want. ...Jiffy Measuring Cup (2 ...Pint Dessert Mold (5 labels).

.Set of Six Individual Pint Salad Mold (5 Molds, as pictured (5 labels).

Jiffy Dessert Co., THIS Waukesha, Wis. I enclose labels as called for. Send the molds I check at side.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS-(YOU HAVE TO HAVE TWO TO GIVE ONE AWAY-)-BY ALLMAN.

